This year's theme, "The Reach and Limits of International Law to Solve Today's Challenges," will reflect on international law's function, utility, relevance, and ability to provide solutions in a complex and changing world. The program offers over 45 hours of substantive sessions, including keynotes and plenaries, as well as receptions and other social activities, and an entire program track dedicated to professional development.

Highlights of the meeting will include:

- More than 200 speakers from around the world
